LETTER FROM THEIR EXCELLENCIES

Greetings Kinsmen!

As we write this, summer has come blazing in and we're on our way towards the southern border to defend against the Midrealm at Border Skirmish.

As we rocket towards Warriors and Warlords, we remind everyone that there are plenty of volunteer shifts left, at last check around 100 across all departments. Warriors and Warlords is a success because of the contribution of staff and volunteers alike. Her Excellency and I remember fondly late night troll shifts with our mentors, welcoming weary friends to the event.

As ever, we are watching for all the good words and recommendations for awards for gentles who contribute to the success of the Barony.

We look forward to seeing everyone at the upcoming events over the next few weeks.

We remain,

Robert and Leona
Baron and Baroness of Jararvellir

James Applegate: Asking to bring baronial shade to Pennsic. They are able to take it.

James the elder: archery is going good. Archery is going to need a new archery net. Old new would be able to be used for traveling events because it is worn for regular use at the stock pavilion. It has been difficult to find the right poundage for the curtain.

Toussaint: July 2 here, July 26 at stock Pavilion, need candidates for seneschal.

Mave: WW is progressing...barony members should help clear out camping for company. Need to find enough money in budget and needs to get new carport cover. Old outside bar will be closed because there is a new one attached to the bar, but will open it if we want it. Her majestic is doing court the musical at WW.

LETTERS FROM THEIR EXCELLENCIES

(Posted in the May Skein .pdf)

Greetings Kinsmen!

It's been a busy time since we last put a missive out. We've been able to recognize several Barony and Canton members for their contributions to the group and we're thrilled to be able to do so. Warriors and Warlords is looming on the horizon and we'd love to be able to recognize more folks. Please send us your recommendations!

As WW is creeping up, we urge you to think about signing up for an hour or two of volunteering over the course of the weekend. Some of my best early memories of WW, is time spent at the late night troll in table (2 am shift!) with my friends, welcoming people the the event.

Last, but certainly not least, we're coming out of our May Day Moot, which was a wonderful, low key day of camaraderie and fun. Fred and her staff pulled together a lovely moot and we're very grateful for it. We crowned a new May Queen, young Alexis of Jararvellir. Congratulations to her.

Next up is Crown Tourney, which we have several Barony members competing in. Good luck to all!

We remain,

Robert and Leona
Baron and Baroness of Jararvellir

meeting minutes

(Posted in the April Skein .pdf)

Present: Jois, Toussaint, Cledwyn, Speranza, Ethini, Aesa, Justin and Leona, Mave, Marion, Alessandra, Nickolaus, Awra, dennis, Muchi

Jois: turned in FITS funds. 810% profit. 53 people attended 3.5 hours of combat melee. Looking for feedback for improvement.

Cledwyn: turned in baric madness fund. Bardic madness preregistration was confusing for people. Challenges on the form was also confusing.

Aesa: here for money

Justin: Going to coronation, fighters' symposium, May Day, T-shirt fundraiser has started.

Mave: Turned in WW contract. WW will be up on the website shortly.

Alessandra: Turning in receipts.

Arwa: 124 bodies 14 children. Cost was actually less than expected. Lessons learned good feedback would like more a disability accessible site. Any incident was taken care of right away by the manager. May want to make more SCA signs. Bardic madness confusion about how fees ran for preregistration. Hotel block rate no one wanted will look into getting a cheaper one.

Muchi: feast went well at bardic madness really liked the kitchen on site.

Gerald (email report): Jewelers guild is going well with between 2 and 4 people showing up each month. I am doing additional research on aiglets and am looking into making a hearth for jewelry work as would have been used in the 12th to 16th centuries. Finally finished up a drinking horn with a repoussé and chased top edge. And I will be presenting at the Fifth Annual Symposium on Medieval and Renaissance Studies in St. Louis in June! Just before WW.

Toussaint: We will have the monthly business meeting after the May Day event
Future meeting dates June 4, July 2, July 26, and Sept 6
